-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

Art Unit: 3781

1. The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:

It does not state that the person making the oath or declaration acknowledges the duty to disclose to the Office all information known to the person to be material to patentability as defined in 37 CFR 1.56.

2. The wording is incorrect.
The drawings were received on 6/22/07. These drawings are accepted.
3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
4. Claims 2, 5-7, 11 and 16-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It appear that the claims a first unitary upper peripheral edge and a first lower peripheral edge in each of claims 2 and 11 are double inclusions of a first unitary upper peripheral edge and a first unitary lower peripheral edge set forth in each of claims 1 and 10, as applicants have not set forth a clear relationship between the structures.

5. Claims 1-3, 8, 10, 11, insofar as they are definite, 14, 24, 27 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mitchell '280.

In response to applicants' remarks, Reed was considered to teach the connection between the upper and sole portion as claimed. However Mitchell clearly does teach a unitary upper with an attached sole 1 to cover a shoe. Note the joint attachment at 4 by stitching as are all portions. Note also the closure at the peripheral portion at 10 and 11 which defines the opening and closing mechanism. Note also the hangers at 8 for suspending the cover.

6. Claims 5, 16, 25 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the references as applied to claims 2 and 11, insofar as they are definite, above, and further in view of Reed '787, of record.

To have provided a suspension tab attached generally to the joining section so as to receive a strap to carry a pair of covers together would have been obvious in view of Reed.

7. Claims 4, 6, 7, 15, 17-21 and 23 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the references as applied to claims 3, 5, 14 and 16 above, and further in view of Landa '097, of record.

To have merely provided fastening means with D rings and straps to the cover so that it might be carried individually or with a pair together would have been obvious in view of Landa.

8. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the reference as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Malone"466, of record..

To have made the expandable cover with a stretch material in the manner of Malone so that it closely fits would have been obvious.

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 10 and 24 and the dependent claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claims 12 and 13 have been canceled. The objection to the drawings is withdrawn in view of the replacement sheets.
